The Mallet

February 2014

We have reached the end of February and the excitement of Christmas and the New year are now well and truly behind us, as are the Lodge Installations. Indeed, our own Right Worshipful Master, Bro. David McArthur can now look back on the first quarter of his time in the 'Chair'. He'll know that he's done at least a basic 1, 2, 3 degrees, a couple of successful official visits, a dramatization as well as, behind the scene, chaired management and enquiry meetings. A good three months I'm sure you'll agree.

As we now enter March we also tend to comment on a British obsession, the weather, while the national news has been full of the horrendous weather affecting the peoples of England and Wales we in the Clyde Valley can probably regard this as one of our mildest winter's for quite some time, plenty of rain it goes without saying but we are well used to that. The plus side now is that many older brethren who may have felt uneasy at attending their Lodge over the last few dark and dreary months may now be thinking of getting back to their Lodges as the nights get milder and lighter, let's hope so and welcome them back.

As for me myself, February started one of the 'two' main cycles of Provincial duties... The annual visitations (the other being Annual Installations). It always fascinates me that there seems to be no way of breaking the perpetuated myth held by both office bearers and ordinary brethren, many with massive experience in the craft, who treat this meeting, and indirectly encourage younger freemasons, as the chance of "a night off". I always enjoyed this evening at Lodge Union and Crown, it was always a short business meeting, a little bit of pomp is added with a large number of Past Masters from around the Province coming in as a deputation and then a summary of how the Lodge performed over the past year including, usually, a sad reminder of those brethren we may have lost during the past year. All this followed by an extended harmony, what better way to spend a Tuesday.

"Why should I listen to Provincial tell me how our Lodge should be run"? I hear you ask and I don't have an answer... Mainly because I don't believe Provincial or indeed Grand Lodge run Lodge Union & Crown, or indeed any Lodge. If I can use an analogy where Lodges are football teams, each Lodge can decide who plays for them and what formation they line up in, even who they play against. What the governing bodies do is protect the fundamentals of the game, we are just checking the pitches are lined, the nets are regulation size and the corner flags are out. The Provincial Grand Lodge cannot decide whether you are a big or small team, what they can do is make sure that you are treated just the same as every other Lodge in the Province and once a year they come out and do just that. Are you there to welcome them?

Hugh Cattigan P.M. Editor.

Regular Meetings

At the regular meeting of the Lodge, held on Tuesday 4th February 2014 a short business meeting of the lodge took place and following this the lodge closed and the brethren adjourned to the function suite to enjoy the 190th Anniversary Dinner.

The toast to the lodge was proposed by Bro. Ross Mennie P.M. and was a very good blend of humour and sincerity. This was very well received by all in attendance.

The brethren were then entertained by Mr. Eric Davidson from Edinburgh who unleashed a comic tour de force which had everyone present laughing from start to finish with his stories, jokes and songs performed with his ukelele.

A very fine raffle took place and everyone left agreeing this was indeed a fantastic night.

Lodge Opened - 07:30pm Lodge Closed – 08:07pm Attendance – 58

At the Regular Meeting of the Lodge, held on Tuesday 18th February 2014 and following the business the lodge was adjourned.

While adjourned, the Temple was converted into 'The Masonic Arms' Public House with Past Master Tom Mulholland taking his place as mein host behind the bar in the West.

The scene was then set for our newest dramatisation Kipling v Burns. This was only the second outing for this dramatisation and all the brethren taking part were warmly received by all who were in attendance. Nice comments were expressed, on behalf of the visitors by Bro. Ross Gibson, R.W.M. of Lodge St. Andrew Kilmarnock No. 126

Following the meeting a harmony took place with old friendships being renewed.

Lodge Opened - 07:30pm Lodge Closed – 08:55pm Attendance – 62

Visitation

A visit on Monday 10th February saw us travel the short distance to Lodge Nitshill no 1478 to confer a F.C. Degree.

19 brethren made the journey and enjoyed the usual warm welcome from the brethren of 1478. A fine F.C. Degree took place and in an almost uninterrupted run was conferred by Bro. Jim Renfrew P.M. once again.

The labours of Union And Crown's brethren were appreciated by all in attendance and the usual warm natured harmony followed.

The Annual Burns Supper on Friday 7th of February saw this traditional function take place and although the attendance was disappointing, the evening was greatly enjoyed by all who did attend. The usual good food, company and a fine array of speakers added up to a fantastic, good value evening with many of the brethren and gentlemen in attendance sitting on after the close of the formal part of the evening to enjoy the convivial atmosphere.

Rockmount R.A.C. No. 367

At the regular meeting of the Chapter held on Tuesday 11th February, The Provincial Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Renfrewshire paid its annual visitation to Rockmount RAC.

The deputation was headed by MEC Gordon M Renfrew, Depute Grand Superintendant and PZ of Sir William Wallace RAC No. 109 and they were warmly welcomed into the Chapter by MEZ George Paul , who immediately offered the fealty and allegiance of the Chapter to MEC Gordon.

Thereafter, in what was a relatively short meeting, bearing in mind the later than usual start, MEC Gordon M Renfrew proceeded to outline the workings of Rockmount during the previous year. He then instructed the Provincial Grand Scribe E., MEC Livingstone Boyd MBE, to read out the official, and clear, minute which had been inscribed in the minute book, with MEC George Paul making suitable reply.

At the close of the meeting, the Office-bearers and Companions of Rockmount Royal Arch Chapter and Rockmount Cryptic Council enjoyed a fine harmony in the company of those members of the Provincial deputation, who had remained to sample the more than adequate hospitality.

The next Regular Meeting of the Chapter, is scheduled for Tuesday 11th March 2014 at 7-30pm when a Royal Arch Degree will be conferred by the Office-bearers and Companions of Rockmount RAC.

MEC George Paul MEZ and his Office-bearers extend a cordial invitation to all Companions, especially any visitors, to support the Chapter by attending on that evening.

Rockmount Cryptic Council

A similar invitation is also extended by the T.I.M. David Bannerman and his Office Bearers to attend the next regular meeting of Rockmount Cryptic Council No. 367.

Tuesday 25th March 2014 at 07:30pm

Strathearn Bowling Competition

The Strathearn Will take place on Sunday 25th May at 01:30pm in Barrhead (venue still to be confirmed). The Rockmount teams were drawn against:

Rockmount 'A'	versus	Paisley Abbey 'B'
Baron of Renfrew 'A'	versus	Rockmount 'B'

Even if you're not a bowler, why not pencil this into your diary for a convivial day out among friends and maybe you will find out you are a bowler after all.

PGLRE ANNUAL MEETING AND INSTALLATION

RWPGM Bro. John S. Miller chaired the Annual Meeting and Installation of Office-Bearers of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire East on Saturday, 25th January 2014, here in our premises at Lodge Union & Crown No.307, Barrhead, packed by Brethren from all over the Province and beyond for the occasion..

The Installation took place of SPGM Bro. Robert McPhee – appointed following the resignation through ill-health of SPGM Bro. Robin Barker – the Obligation being given by PGM Bro. John S. Miller.

The Installation of Provincial Grand Lodge Office-Bearers and Stewards followed - undertaken by DPGM Bro. Neil Fraser and SPGM Bro. William Fleming. PGM Bro. John S. Miller then presented Bro. John Kerr with a Past Provincial Grand Warden's Apron and thanked him warmly for his diligent work.

Bro. Neil Fraser and SPGM, Bro. William Fleming on the splendid job they had done in installing the Office Bearers.

During the meeting, the PGM presented a cheque for £4500 for the Soldiers' Charity - the Army Benevolent Fund - to Bro. Alex Braceland of Lodge Kirkliston Maitland No.482, who served for 36 years with the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders and is now liaison officer for the ABF. The money for the charity had been raised by lodges throughout the Province.

Bro. Alex thanked the Brethren for the generous donation and promised it would be put to good use in supporting soldiers and their families in times of need.

FREEMASONS ARRESTED FOR SORCERY

“Dopey Village People” Finger Freemasons for Sorcery

A group of fourteen Freemasons were arrested and held in Fiji on charges of sorcery. The group, which included eight Australians and one New Zealander, was arrested on Tuesday night on Denarau Island. They were held for 24 hours at the police station at Nasudi, but were released by order of Prime Minister of Fiji Frank Bainimarama.

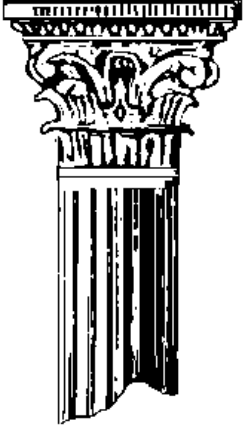

The Freemasons had been convening a Masonic meeting, but did not, according to the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, have the correct permit. Waisea Tabakau, the police director of operations, told Legend FM News in Fiji that the Freemasons were being investigated for “allegedly practising sorcery”, after complaints by villagers.

The New Zealander commented to reporters that his time in police custody had been “wretched”, and that the arrests had been the result of “dopey village people”.

Many of us will have heard the following as a story, lecture, or perhaps just read similar tales. I make no apologies for reproducing this version and my thanks go to P.M. Raymond Smith for forwarding it to me.

For sure, many of the Masons mentioned are American, but by no means all and perhaps some of the younger, and not so young, brethren will be content to 'Google' the lesser known ones and learn a little more about these famous brothers...

Over the centuries, many, well known gentlemen have been members of our Craft.

For a few moments, please allow your imaginations to run wild and consider what may take place at an Installation of The Grand Lodge Above.

Even though it was late Autumn, there was a warm breeze blowing and the sun was setting behind the Lodge Hall.

Gathered in the parking lot filled with their works were Bros Henry Ford, Ransom Olds, Walter Chrysler, John Willys and Andre Citroen. The only vehicle missing was Bro Hart Massey's tractor.

Greeting members in the entrance hall was Bro Cliff Arquette and Bro Ed Wynn.

In the entrance hall, a group of senior DeMolays were gathered including Bros Walter Disney, Chet Huntley, Wendell Corey, Van Johnson, Robert Cummings, John Steinbeck, Fred McMurray and John Cameron Swayze.

King Gillette, razor in hand, passed the lodge caretaker who was having a minor problem with his vacuum cleaner, which was quickly cleared up with the help of its inventor, Bro Frank Hoover, while at the other end of the hallway Bros Emmett Kelly, Clyde Beatty and all seven of the Ringling Bros were discussing the Shrine Circus.

Taking a quick look into the Function suite, Bros John Molson, Frederick Pabst and Joseph Schlitz were busy rolling in some kegs of beer for Bros Sam Bronfman, late President of Seagrams Distillers, who was setting up the bar for the Festive Board to follow the Ceremony.

Bro Colonel Harland Sanders was cooking up a storm in the kitchen and it was an easy guess as to what the evening meal would consist of.

The orchestra members for the dance to follow the harmony were tuning up. Members of this All-Star group included Bro's Paul Whiteman, WC Hardy, Nat King Cole, Irving Berlin, George M Cohan, Cyril Stapleton, Duke Ellington, Louis Armstrong, Count Basie and Al Jolson.

Tonight's performance would be M.C.Ed by Bros Arthur Godfrey and Danny Thomas.

Magical Bros Harry Houdini and Harry Blackstone were setting up their props while Bros WC Fields, Oliver Hardy, Bud Abbott, Harpo Marx, and Foster Brooks were fine tuning their comedy routines for tonight's show which was being produced by Bros Cecil B DeMille, Flo Ziegfeld, Louis B Mayer, Hall Wallis and DW Griffiths.

A number of sports celebrities were also gathering together, including Bro Abe Saperstein, creator of the Harlem Globetrotters, who was explaining his version of the game to Bro James Naismith, the inventor of the game. They were joined by baseballers Bros Charles Ebbetts, Ty Cobb, Branch Rickey and Cy Young, the first pitcher to be inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame.

A little further along the hall was an array of masons dressed in knee breeches, lace cuffs and powdered wigs, others in tuxedos, including Bros Kit Carson, Davey Crockett and Buffalo Bill Cody, clad in their familiar buckskins, Chiefs Crazy Bull, Tecumseh and Joseph Brant in their native attire discussing his discoveries with Ben Franklin. Most colourful are the military uniforms of Lord Nelson, Lord Cornwallis, Captain James Cook, the Duke of Wellington, George Washington and John Paul Jones.

I was gazing in awe at these members of the Lodge, when the Grand Master, MW Bro Harry Truman, appeared from a side room accompanied by Bros John Jacob Astor, Luther Burbank, JC Penney, Adlai Stevenson and Jennings Bryan.

Bro John Diefenbaker had just signed the sederunt with one of Bro John Shaeffer's pens. He was accompanied by Bros Robert Borden and RB Bennett. Fellow Canadian Prime Ministers and by Bro. Joe Smallwood of Newfoundland.

At this time, the Tyler, Bro J Edgar Hoover, informed the brethren that the meeting was about to come to order.

On entering the lodge room the brethren were greeted by the Inner Guard, Bro Paul Revere. Seated already were polar explorers, Robert F Scott of England and Bro Richard E Bird of the United States, together with Matthew G Perky and Canada's Henry Larsen.

Bro Charles Lindbergh could be seen in deep conversation with Bros Hap Arnold, Gus Grissom, Eddie Rickenbaker and Charles Kingsford-smith.

From the Junior Warden's station came a burst of laughter. Bro Will Rogers had brought broad smiles to the faces of the Royal personages gathered around him, including George 1, Frederick the Great, Gustav V of Sweden and George VI. To the right of the Junior Warden's chair, architect Sir Christopher Wren was joined by Statue of Liberty sculptor, Frederic Bartholdi.

Bros Norman Vincent Peale and Peter Marshall, who would assume the Chaplain's duties this evening, were in conversation with the DuPonts, Peter and Victor, and the Rothschilds, James and Nathan.

Gathered around the Secretary's desk, Bro Rudyard Kipling was discussing the evening's proceedings with Bro Robert Burns, who was to give one of the Charges assisted by Bro Mark Twain. Also taking part were Bros Conan Doyle, Walter Scott, Samuel Johnson, Alexander Pope and Robert Service.

The Grand Organist, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, was discussing last minute changes with Bros Gilbert and Sullivan.

Bros Clark Gable, Peter Sellers, Wallace Beery, Douglas Fairbanks and Brian Donleavy were discussing boxing with champions Jack Dempsey, Jack Johnson and Sugar Ray Robinson.

Another small group, in the persons of Bros John Wayne, Hoot Gibson and Tom Mix, were listening to Bro William Thaddeus Phillips, also known as Butch Cassidy.

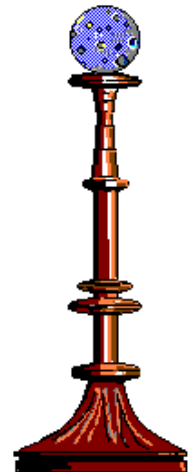

The senior members, Bros George Washington, Sir John A MacDonald, Guiseppe Garibaldi, Benito Jaurez, John Hancock and Ben Franklin were seated in the East.

They have been joined by Sir Stamford Raffles, founder of Singapore. The Generals, Omar Bradley, Jimmy Doolittle, George C Marshall, John Pershing and Douglas McArthur, take their seats next to Franklin Roosevelt and Winston Churchill.

The Lodge Treasurer, Bro Henry Knox was busy collecting dues from Bros Thomas E Dewey and William McKinley.

The Master, MW Bro HRH The Duke of Connaught, has rapped the gavel to call the Lodge to order and it is now time for us to depart. With one last look at this brilliant assembly.

One wonders what the public's perception of Freemasonry might be if they were able to visit such a lodge.

LODGE GOLF OUTING
MOFFAT GOLF CLUB

Bro Lawrence Webb, Golf Convenor would like to remind the brethren this year's annual golf outing is taking place in Moffat on Saturday 14th June 2014. Anyone interested should contact Bro Lawrence 0141-571 4330.

We hear that Bro. Lawrence now has a full complement of golfers signed up and that anyone still interested will have to take their chances on a reserve list and call-offs.

We hear that Bro. Willie Renfrew PM has dusted off his robes and mortar board, picked up his cane and chalk and returned, part time, to teaching English at Renfrew High school. All the best m8, cu l8r.

Teacher: "Would you two boys at the back of the class stop passing notes."

Little Johnny: "We're not passing notes. We're playing cards!"

Bro. Adam G. Watson continues to take names for “bricks” and the first few boards are now up in the lower passage leading from the Temple to the downstairs facilities and are drawing admiring glances.

Each panel ‘Brick’ costs £20 so if you are interested in getting your name up on the wall or perhaps you would like one as a gift or perhaps in memory of a dear departed Brother then just contact Bro. Adam, give him the details you want displayed on the ‘brick’ (e.g. “name and Lodge number”) along with your £20 and that’s it.

Wee Jock's Big Braw Scottish Nights

Bro. Johnnie Gauld P.M. is running two Wee Jock's Big Braw Scottish Nights on Friday 25th and Saturday 26th April in the lodge premises.

Both of these nights will help to raise funds for Shelter Scotland and are guaranteed to be a sell out so please see Bro. Johnnie for tickets as soon as possible.

Congratulations to Bro. Ian Blair Snr. Warden on becoming a grandfather.

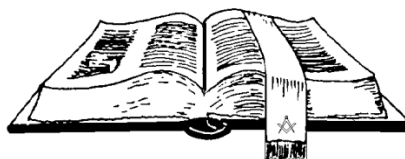

The Bible

In every one of our 1000 plus Scottish lodges we have a copy of the bible on each altar. Below are a few facts on the book so many of us take for granted.

The bible contains 3,586,489 letters, 776,693 words. The word "and" occurs 46,277 times but the word reverend only once.

The 21st verse of the 7th chapter of Ezra contains all the letters of the alphabet except the letter "j". The longest verse is the ninth in the 8th chapter of Esther and the shortest is the 35th verse of the 11th chapter of St. John.

This book has no words of more than six syllables

The pen may indeed be mightier than the sword but it's a lot less effective in armed combat.

ALMONER

During the past month I have endeavoured, as always, to carry out the duties of Lodge almoner, as, I believe, in a positive and compassionate spirit. Consequently, all of the following visits to Brethren and ladies of the Lodge, all well known, were of a heartfelt and sincere nature:-

FLASHBACK

Some Snippets from the Mallet of 24 Years Ago

Issue No. 131

February 1990

RWM Bro. Robert Nixon

At the Regular Meeting of the Lodge, held on Tuesday 6th February 1990, the following Candidates, Mr. David Kerr and Mr. David Dalglish Jr. Were initiated into the ancient mysteries and privileges of our order by the Lodge Instruction Class. An attendance of 138 witnessed a fine degree.

At the Regular Meeting of the Lodge, held on Tuesday 20th February, the same two candidates were passed to the 2nd square or FC degree by a deputation from our good friends of Lodge Thistle & Crown No. 1167 with 149 in attendance.

A highlight of February saw almost 100 brethren enjoy the 11th Past Masters and Senior members dinner involving a superb meal, entertainment and an occasional refreshment, just in case any of the brethren were thirsty.

A low point for the Lodge and indeed the whole town was the closure of Armitage Shanks Tubal works. Many of our Brethren, their wives and families worked in the Tubal.

Congratulations to Bros Robin Murray and Tom Conway on becoming the latest members of 307 to join Rockmount Royal Arch.

It was good to see some of our Past Masters taking part in recent degrees. In most Lodges P.M's get plenty of degree work but in 307 they've to fight for this.

Congratulations to Bro. Kenny Houston on his recent retirement from the Post Office after 43 years. Bro. Kenny spent most of his time on the overnight mail train to London and he was, in fact, on board the ill-fated train the night of "The Great Train Robbery".

The presidential oath taken by George Bush was on the same bible used by Bro. George Washington in 1789. It was donated by St. John's Lodge No. 1 of New York.

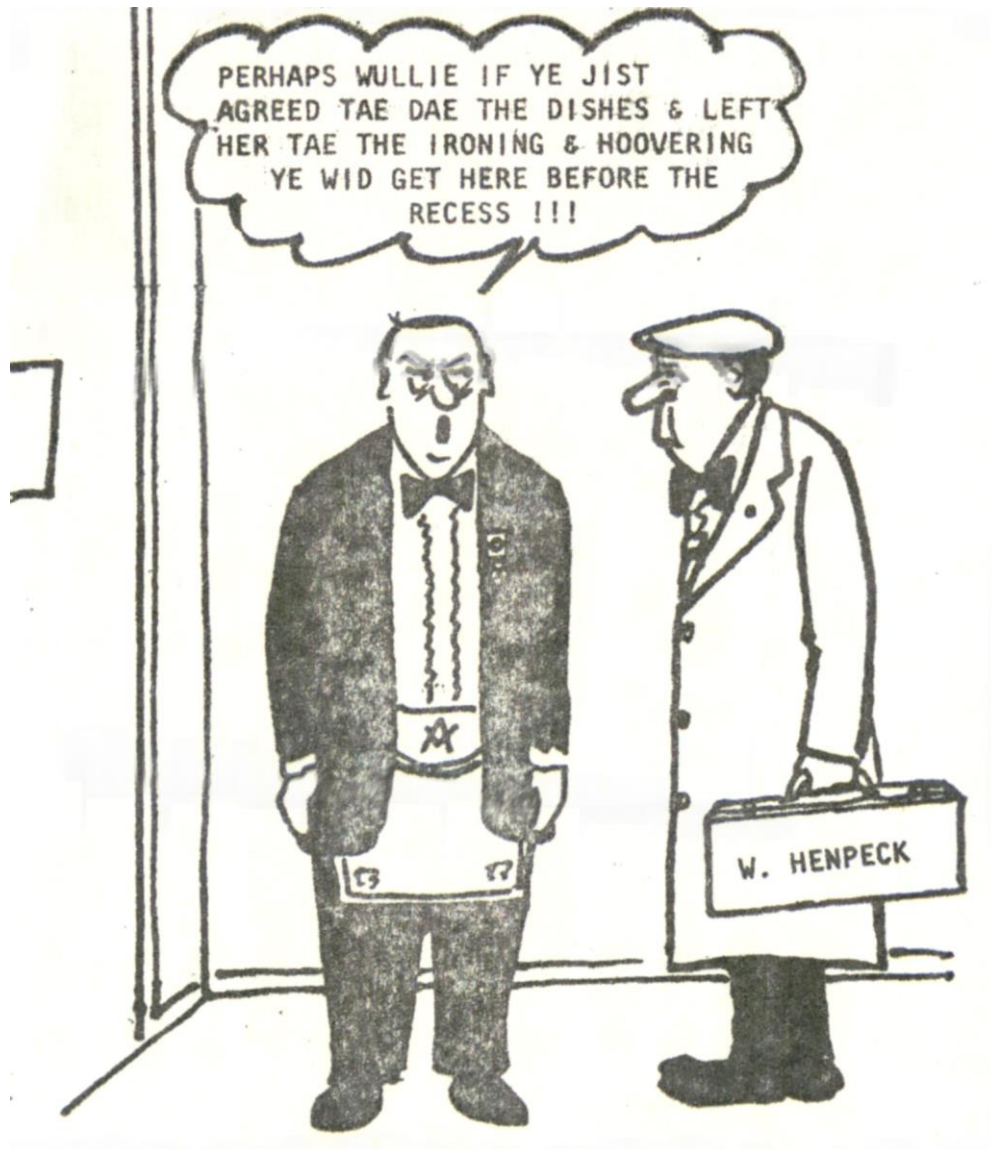

The last quarterly communication meeting of Grand Lodge took 25 minutes, twenty of those taken up by the opening and closing.

Congratulations to Bro. Archie Grant PM who after 17 years of membership has missed a single meeting.

Commiserations to Bro. Nichol Hynd whose car was stolen, on the last meeting night, from the car-park adjacent to the Lodge. It was later found severely damaged by the thieves.

Bro. James Laing tells the story of how his paper boy failed to deliver his newspaper, and collect the weekly payment. Later he heard a paper being quietly put through the door and on investigation, Bro. James thought he saw some cove, or evesdropper skulking in the bushes, further investigation found Past Master 'Bud' Gauld delivering a young Johnny Gauld's newspapers... There is no information as to whether Bro. Bud was paid, or even got a tip?
