Issue No. 363

April 2013

Well. Who would have thought... It only seems like a few weeks since we were cleaning snow and ice off our cars (it was! Ed.) and now here we are at May and with only one more meeting to go before the recess... This, of course, will be our popular dramatisation "The Table of Scottish Freemasons" where Scottish born Masons from different era's dine together. Remember brethren, this meeting will not be on our usual Tuesday (7th May) but instead on Friday the 10th May.

Of course, as well as the above meeting we also have another entry in the Lodge diary and that is the Divine Service. This year that will be hosted by Lodge Thistle and Crown on Sunday 26th May 2013. Regalia should be worn and Brethren to meet at the premises of Lodge Thistle & Crown No. 1167 at 06:00 for 06:30pm thereafter we will walk from the Lodge to Neilston Parish Church for the service.

Is it really too much for most brethren, and their families, to give up an hour or so of their time to offer a prayer of thanks for what they and their families have received or even to quietly complain about the hand life has dealt you and ask the GA for help in the days and years ahead.

I believe a prayer will be heard wherever you say it but sometimes it helps if you go to the house of the person you want to speak to.

Didn't the new dramatization go well? With the temple being given a slight makeover into "The Masonic Arms" public house, two Masons meeting for the first time end up discussing who was the most famous/influential masonic poet, Robert Burns or Rudyard Kipling? The discussion between the two prompt and involve several brethren around the Lodge room. With poems and song dominating the rest of the evening will this become a regular addition to our calendar, only time will tell but it was warmly received by the first night crowd?

Tip 1. He who lives in a glass house shouldn't invite him who is without sin over for dinner.

Tip 2. Whatever you do, always give 100% - Unless you're donating blood.

Not Long to go...

Bro. David McArthur is his usual organised self and has his syllabus ready for his forthcoming year in the chair. It's always rewarding to see the up and coming R.W.Ms meeting up with their counterparts from sister lodges and planning for the future with the great thing being they will always have that special connection when they finish their year at the helm.

Regular Meetings

A regular meeting of the Lodge was held on Tuesday 2nd April 2013 and following the business a MM Degree was conferred on our candidate, David Barr, by The Lodge Instruction Class in what was an excellent, spirited and well executed ceremonial. The usual harmony followed with the brethren enjoying a spot of relaxation following the labours of the evening with Bro. David working hard helping to sell raffle tickets in what is a traditional duty of a new Brother.

Lodge opened - 7.30pm Lodge closed - 9.29pm Attendance - 64

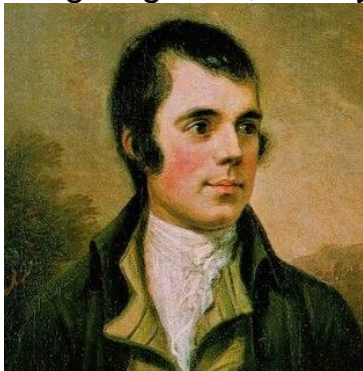

On the 16th April 2013 - A meeting of the lodge took place with P.G.M. Bro John Samuel Miller in attendance from the opening. Bro John declining the offer of the Mallet thanked the brethren for the use of the premises for the P.G.L.R.E. fundraiser and gave particular thanks to Bro. Johnnie Gauld P.M. for running his famous Wee Jock's Big Braw Scottish Night for this event which raised the magnificent sum of £1600.00.

Following the recess twelve brethren took part in a new dramatization which set the scenario of two brethren meeting in a pub and discussing the virtues of Bro. Robert Burns and Bro. Rudyard Kipling with the barman acting as mediator in what was a good natured contest. The assembled brethren gave the participating brethren the best of attention and a warm ovation following their efforts and although this was the first performance of this particular piece everything ran very smoothly. A harmony followed and it was good as always to welcome visiting brethren we hadn't seen for a while and catch up with them.

Lodge opened - 7.30pm Lodge closed -9.06pm Attendance - 70

The recent dramatization (see above. Ed.) was a new and interesting project with the brethren involved learning one or two poems each. Some of this was underpinned by music from Bro. Sam Wilson who also performed a song amidst the poetry.

With the Lodge converted into a Public House "The Masonic Arms" and with Bro. Bud Gauld P.M., Bro Jim Kerr P.M. Treasurer and Bro. Tom Mulholland P.M. Secretary as the pub patrons and barman respectively these three held the whole thing together, everyone taking part came in on cue and delivered their readings concisely. There was a good amount of humour as the two "worthies" compared Burns with Kipling and enjoyed their night in the pub together!

A worthwhile and interesting addition to the lodge programme, this performance replaced the Dramatised F.C. Degree which has been performed a good many times in recent years and is still being taken on the road. It remains to be seen if this will become a regular fixture but seemed to tick a lot of the right boxes with the brethren who witnessed it whilst enjoying everyone's efforts.

Visit to Lodge St Johns Royal Arch Saltcoats and Ardrossan No. 320

On Saturday 20th April 2013, the brethren travelled down to Lodge St Johns Royal Arch Saltcoats and Ardrossan No. 320 where we had been invited to perform our dramatized 2nd Degree.

By Bus, Train and automobile 21 brethren travelled to Ardrossan where all received a most warm and sincere welcome from the RWM Bro. Colin Hannah, his Office Bearers and Brethren.

The dramatization was well received by those who were watching, particularly by those seeing it for the first time and the brethren taking part are to be congratulated on their efforts.

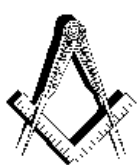

Following the ceremonial part of the day the assembled brethren then retired downstairs where an excellent buffet meal had been laid on with all those taking part in the degree being invited to join with the RWM, Bro. Colin, at his top table. As the evening progressed music and dancing were the order of the day before we at 307 had to call it a day and return home.

I'm sure the Brethren of Lodge Union and Crown No. 307 came away from Ardrossan wondering when the last time was that we were so well looked after. And with perhaps a few checking the syllabus for when we can next visit Lodge St Johns Royal Arch Saltcoats and Ardrossan No. 320.

Bro. Alex White is back at his best carrying out his duties as Lodge Almoner with his reports on meeting nights leaving the brethren in no doubt about his dedication to this important post. "Well done thy true and faithful servant."

Bro Lawrence Webb has advised us the cabaret night on Saturday 4th May is now sold out and a reserve list is operating for those still looking for tickets.

Bro. Lawrence has also announced a Halloween dance to take place in October and will keep us up to speed on this particular event.

Rockmount R.A.C. No. 367

All who participated are to be congratulated upon their performances, considering that one or two Companions were unavailable on the night.

MEC George Paul MEZ and his Office-bearers extend a cordial invitation to all Companions, especially any visitors, to attend on that evening.

At the close of the meeting, the Office-bearers and Companions of Rockmount Royal Arch Chapter along with their visitors enjoyed a fine harmony.

I met a transvestite from greater Manchester yesterday... He had a Wigan address.

It is with profound regret that I report the passing of Past Master Bro. Joe Roberts, aged 82. Bro. Joe died peacefully at Cubbington Mill Care Home, Warwickshire where he had been a resident for quite some time. Bro. Joe and his beloved wife, Anna, moved from Barrhead to Warwickshire over 6 years past and during that period as Lodge almoner I kept in regular contact with them. Each month I sent a copy of our Lodge journal, The Mallet, both Joe and Anna appreciated keeping in touch with the Lodge and its members while being so far distant.

The funeral service took place at Paisley crematorium on Friday the 19th April . I attended that service and also the after gathering where I fully expressed our deepest sympathy to anna and other family members present, They in turn responded by warmly thanking me.

Bro. Joe Roberts P.M. was born on the 19th April 1920. A native of Barrhead, in life he was a man and a brother much respected by many. He was very much a dedicated freemason who throughout his long and faithful service to our beloved fraternity gave much commitment to the many senior offices he held with dignity and much acclaim within the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire East. Bro. Joe was Master of his Mother Lodge, Lodge Union and Crown No. 307 during the years 1958/59. I personally took note that he held the position of Provincial Grand Almoner for a period of 21 years. A good man and mason has left our ranks.

It is with sorrow that I intimate the death of Mrs Margaret Love the dearly beloved wife of Bro. Willie Love P.M. who passed away peacefully whilst in hospital in Glasgow. The funeral service took place on Saturday 13th April at the Bourock Parish Church, Barrhead and thereafter at Craufurdland Estate, Woodland burial site, Fenwick, Ayrshire. I attended both services and also the after gathering of family and friends. Condolences on behalf of the Lodge were given by me to P.M. Willie and his family. During my term as Lodge almoner I had paid visits to Willie and Margaret at their home in Barrhead and on every occasion I was welcomed most earnestly and encouraged by their resolve. Mrs Margaret Love will be greatly missed.

To continue with the same note of heavy heart I relate the peaceful passing of Mrs Elizabeth (Liz) Nicol at the Accord Hospice, Paisley. Liz was the dearest and much loved wife of Bro. Iain Nicol. I have visited Bro. Iain at their home in Barrhead and expressed the sadness felt by all the '307' members who knew and respected Liz. Bro. Iain in appreciation, sincerely spoke of his gratitude for the kindnesses and condolence rendered to him and his family by all.

The funeral service took place at Woodside crematorium, Paisley on Wednesday 17th April. I attended that service and the after gathering of family and friends in Barrhead where I expressed, on behalf of the Lodge, our condolences to Bro Iain and other family members, I was thanked. Like Margaret Love, Mrs Liz Nicol will be missed by many.

During the past month A number of 'home' visits (some more than once) have been carried out by myself, namely to Bro. Jim Liggat, Bro. Donald Ferguson and Mary, Bro. Raymond Forrest, Mrs Mary Gray and Mrs Margaret McLellan.

Brethren, please contact me if my services as your almoner is required.

Bro. Alex White, Lodge Almoner, ☎ 0141-571 6411

Summer Fayre

Saturday 15th June

As well as a fun day out, it is also a great social occasion with many wives, partners and friends joining the brethren in both the tearoom and bar as the afternoon comes to a conclusion. It is also important however to remember this afternoon is without doubt one of the most important fundraiser of the year because with the lodge in recess, income is severely limited.

It is vital therefore that the Summer Fayre is a success and that as many brethren as possible contribute in even the smallest way. Perhaps by handing in a prize, some old books, bric-a-brac (not old broken electrical equipment or VHS tapes!) and more importantly by turning up and participating on the day...

Of course we are only too aware of holidays, bowling, caravans and all the other distractions the summer brings but it cannot be emphasised strongly enough how important a good Summer Fayre can be to the Lodge.

Bro. Ian Blair WJW is in charge this year and is looking for help from the brethren and their partners. The usual stalls will be there and Bro. Ian hopes this will be a successful day and appeals for a good attendance.

Army Benevolent Fund – Mud Run

On a bitterly cold Sunday morning, at the end of March, Past Masters David Watson, and Stephen Allan, of Lodge Union and Crown 307, accompanied by their daughters, travelled to Fenwick, to battle the elements and complete a Mud Run on behalf of the Provisional Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire East, and their chosen charity The Army Benevolent Fund, The Soldiers Charity, where they managed to raise the magnificent sum of £200.

There is another Mud Run planned for September this year, so if anyone is interested in taking part, in what promises to be an enjoyable day, please contact Brothers David or Stephen for further information.

(Bro's David and Stephen are also available to give out tips on which washing powder to use afterwards Ed.)

Did you hear about the two Mexican firefighters? Jose and Hose B.

Good to see Bro. Kenny Coleman I.P.M. travelling up from his new home in Bristol to attend and take part in lodge meetings as well as the odd visitation!

That's dedication for you. Either that or Bristol has no good hostellers?

Here at Lodge Union & Crown are still very lucky to have so many reigning masters and our brethren coming along to our regular meetings. Keep it up!

The Dougie Campbell Memorial Trophy

Will take place at Arthurlie Bowling Club on Sunday 14th July.

This popular event is always one to look forward to and any member wishing to attend should add his name to the list in the downstairs bar. Partners welcome.

DIVINE SERVICE

Our joint Annual Divine Service with Lodge Thistle and Crown No. 1167 will take place on Sunday 26th May 2013.

Regalia should be worn and Brethren to meet at the premises of Lodge Thistle & Crown No. 1167 at 06:00 for 06:30pm thereafter we will walk from the Lodge to Neilston Parish Church for the service.

We hear that two "formerly" busy Past Masters can now be spotted around the streets of Barrhead walking the dog... Or are the dogs taking the PM's for a walk?

P.G.L.R.E. - BIG BRAW SUCCESS

Wee Jock's Big Braw Scottish Night held on Saturday, 30th March 2013, at Lodge Union & Crown No.307 in Barrhead proved a great success.

The evening of entertainment included a mixture of Burns, Scottish music hall turns, comedy, piping and a sing along coupled with plenty of food and drink.

Revealing that more than £1600 had been raised for PGLRE funds, PGM. Bro. John S. Miller thanked all those who arranged the event, performed on the night or attended as a guest for their efforts.

The London sculptor Frederick William Pomeroy (1856-1924) sculpted the most original of all the Burns statues ever produced.

Proceeds from the concerts given by the Tannahill Choir* were used to defray the costs of erecting statues in Paisley to Robert Tannahill and his main inspiration Robert Burns.

The forementioned statue stands in the grounds of Paisley Abbey. The latter statue was unveiled by Lord Rosebery on 26th September 1896. The bronze figure, ten feet high, is mounted on a twelve foot pedestal of grey granite and stands in Fountain Gardens.

Burns is shown in tail coat, knee breeches and a broad Kilmarnock bonnet, leaning languidly against a plough and holding a pencil and notebook in contemplative mood.

Pinnington commended Pomeroy for abandoning precedent and convention without roughly defying prevailing views of physical likeness. Burns looks every inch a man; somewhat ponderous, perhaps, across the loins for agility, but muscular, broad and strong. An ample plaid lends the burly peasant all the grace he needs, and, falling over the plough at the back, partly hides a thistle. The emblem is not obtruded, because the sculptor wishes the poet to be seen as the Poet of Humanity first, and as that of Scotland afterwards.

Mr Pomeroy tried for something original and he succeeded. In his Burns he has portrayed the thinker and poet of boundless potentiality, without neglecting the toil-bent worker or the athlete. Capable as a work of art, the statue is endowed with a life-like vigour and picturesque grace which ensure its acceptance.

A bronze bas-relief of Tam being pursued by witches adorns the pedestal.

Copies of the Pomeroy statue were unveiled in the Domains of Sydney, Australia and Auckland, New Zealand in January 1905 and November 1921 respectively, on colossal pedestals without the bronze bas-relief.

The first centenary of Robert Tannahills death was marked by a procession to the Gleniffer Braes attended by 15,000 people who heard several of his songs sung by a choir. A series of "Tannahill Concerts" held on the Gleniffer Braes began in 1876 and continued until 1936. The proceeds of the penny admission went to the town hospital and to the erection of the above two statues.*

DRAMATISED FELLOWCRAFT DEGREE

PGLRE DIVINE SERVICE

On Sunday 21st April 2013, an excellent turn-out of 136 brethren from Renfrewshire East and beyond joined together in worship at the Provincial Grand Lodge Annual Divine Service in Stow Brae Kirk, Paisley.

The service was led by Provincial Grand Chaplains, Bros. Rev. Robert Craig and Pastor William Shirlaw and readings were delivered by Bros. John S Miller PGM and Neil Fraser DPGM. Stow Brae is Bro. Robert Craig's new charge and he made the Brethren of Provincial Grand Lodge most welcome.

We were particularly delighted to receive representations from six of our sister Provinces (Glasgow, Ayrshire, Galloway, Lanarkshire Middle Ward, Dunbartonshire and Kilwinning).

P.S.

On Sunday 21st April 2013, a poor turn-out of 1 turned up three hours late for the Divine service ,, Doh! Ed.

FLASHBACK

Some Snippets from the Mallet of 23 Years Ago

April 1990

RWM Robert Nixon

At the Regular Meeting held on Tuesday 3rd April 1990 three brethren were initiated into the mysteries and ancient privileges of our order by our good friends from Lodge Nitshill No. 1478, these men being, Robert Blair Jr., Alan Forrest and Leonard Hudson. The Lodge closed at 09:52 with an attendance of 142.

The regular meeting on the 17th April saw the same three candidates receive a fine F.C. degree from the office bearers and brethren of Lodge Kil Bryde No. 1667. On this occasion the Lodge closed at 09:65 with an attendance of 123.

The Mallet editorial led with an issue currently going round about the formation of a new, as yet unnamed, Lodge within the Province of Renfrewshire East. This Lodge to be a Lodge of Research (The reader may wish to note that Lodge The Kings Park No.1386 became a Lodge of Research in 1992 Ed.).

We were delighted to receive a copy of the '101 Bulletin', a newsletter relating to the 6 lodges resident at Lodge Neptune's premises at Clifford Street, Glasgow.

We hear that Bro. Ian Blair is heading to Italy this summer as part of the "Tartan Army"! (Ah those were the days Ed.)

We gather our worthy secretary Bro. Bud is in his 18th consecutive year as an office bearer of the Lodge, quite a feat! (The Great train robbers got less.)

The recent surprise winner at the Cheltenham Gold cup was No.307 at 100/1.

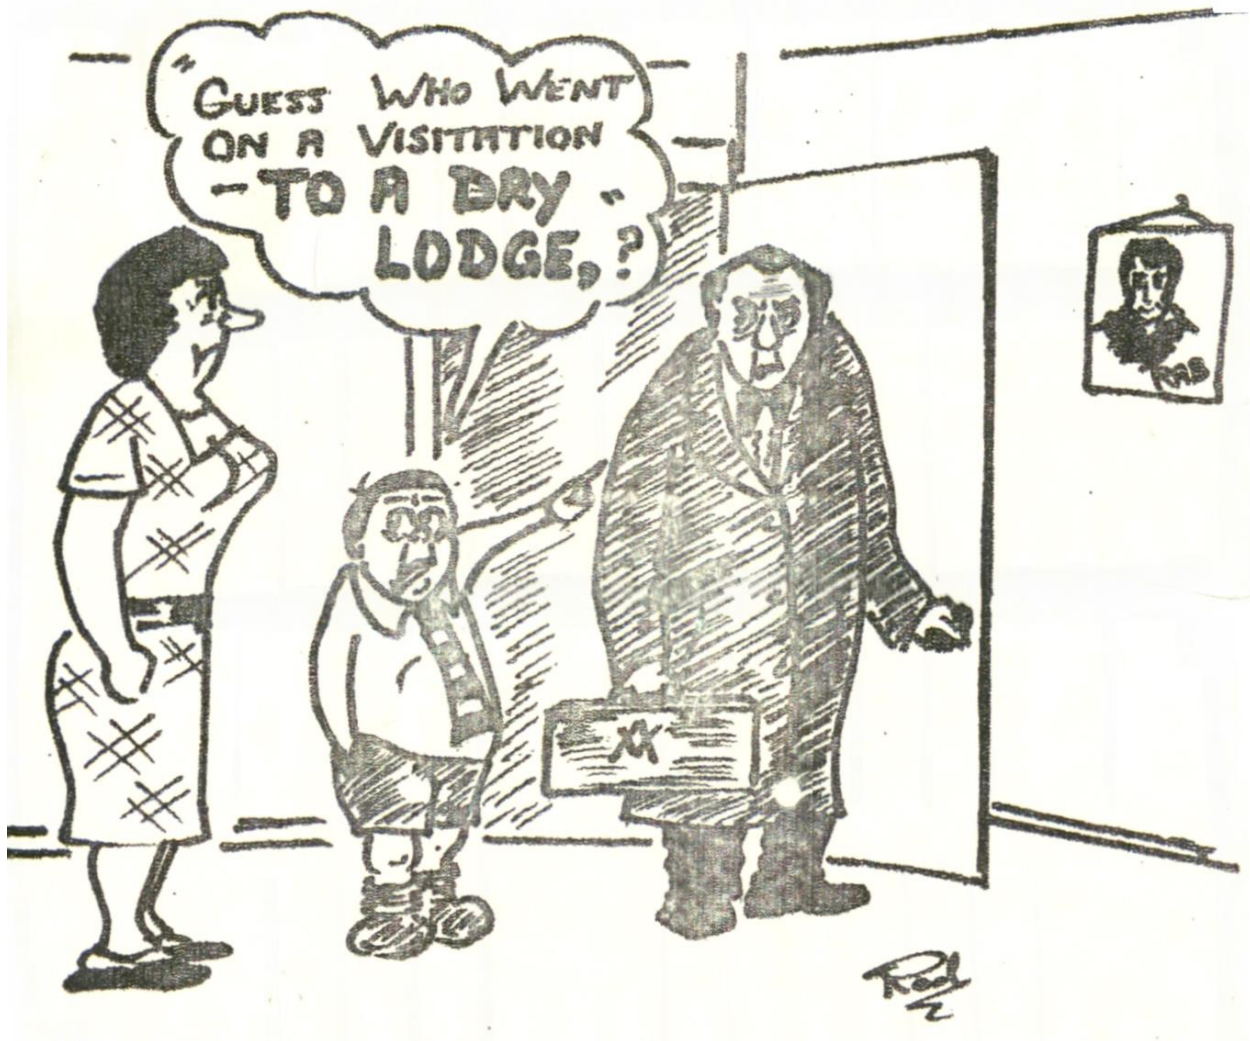

This months 307 'Look alike', submitted by Bro. Martin Pitches, is Past Master Bro, David Noble and Charlie Drake... No Comment. (This is going to require finding old photographs Ed.)

Sadly for the Lodge one article highlighted the plight and problems of maintaining the Lodge's holiday caravan down at Weymss Bay. If interest in the caravan continues to wane then the Lodge will need to reconsider its position.

The Most Excellent First Principal of Rockmount RAC, MEC Alex Meldrum was having a busy time... On the 10th April two candidates received their EM degree and the next meeting on the 8th May would see a further five candidates receive their EM degree and on the same evening the Past Principals would put SEVEN through the RA degree (Changed days indeed.)

'100 Club' winners on the 3rd April were Bro. Robert Easdon P.M. (£10) and Bro. John Livingstone (£5). On the 17th April Bro. Jack Richardson P.M. (£10) and Bro. Alex Smeaton (£5).
