Summer 2013

Hi, welcome back and to paraphrase the TV weathermen, was that not the quickest three months since records began...? Talking of weathermen, this years "stay at homes" can certainly have no complaints about the Scottish weather during this years holidays and for those visiting friends down in England it was more like travelling to the Mediterranean.

Anyway with the Temple doors about to be flung open Lodge Union & Crown will be welcoming, our good friends, the brethren of Lodge Prince of Wales No. 426 to our first meeting after the recess on Tuesday 3rd September.

Every Lodge is of course different but I always feel a slight change in the tempo of our Lodge after the summer break. Perhaps the office bearers who are hoping to progress in office start thinking of their next office, perhaps other brethren are being encouraged, or considering, to take an office for the first time. Even the Master may feel that he is on the slippery slope to becoming a Past Master and try that little bit more, if possible, whilst his successor is in overdrive trying to meet and greet his future opposite numbers in Lodges throughout the Province and beyond. He, of course, will be looking to secure his syllabus and arrange as many meetings as possible for the subsequent year.

The future master elect may be wondering what the most important meeting of his year is going to be? Installation, A.G.M., Provincial Visitation or perhaps there is a special anniversary to consider...

The Installation meeting is certainly a contender for most important, lots of dinner suits, visiting Masters, Provincial deputations, full sit-down meal, speeches and entertainment and with all the new office bearers standing just that little bit taller... but is it that interesting for the ordinary member?

The A.G.M., another strong contender... Without this, you can forget the installation. This is where office bearers will receive their nominations for the subsequent year while the running of the Lodge over the past 12 months is open for debate and discussion and when hopefully any criticisms will be done constructively and when supportive acknowledgement of what went well is offered freely.

Perhaps you find the 'degree' meetings the most important and who would argue against that? You don't have to go into office, you don't have to speak at the AG.M., the one thing we all have in common are our degree meetings.

Then again, maybe none of the above are correct... Perhaps the most important meeting in the Lodge calendar is simply the NEXT meeting.

Hope that you are all raring to go... Supporting the RWM Bro. Paul Stewart and his Substitute Master, Bro. David McArthur, within and without the Province.

Wieliczka Salt Mine

We 'speculative' masons often align ourselves with the skilled stonemasons and artisans of the past admiring their skills in many buildings around the world. We use their tools to learn moral lessons which then can serve us well in our day to day life but perhaps we should not only look at 'Stone' for our inspiration...

Deep underground in Poland lies something remarkable, but little known outside Eastern Europe . For centuries, miners have extracted salt there, but they left behind things that are quite startling and unique. Take a look at the most unusual salt mine in the world.

From the outside, Wieliczka Salt Mine doesn't look extraordinary. It does look extremely well kept for a place that hasn't mined any salt for over ten years but apart from that it looks ordinary. However, over two Hundred meters below ground it holds an astonishing secret. This is a salt mine that became an art gallery, cathedral and underground lake.

Situated in the Krakow area, Wieliczka is a small town of close to twenty thousand inhabitants. It was founded in the twelfth century by a local Duke to mine the rich deposits of salt that lie beneath. Until 1996 it did just that, but the generations of miners did more than just extract salt. They left behind them a breathtaking record of their time underground in the shape of statues of mythic, historical and religious Figures. They even created their own chapels in which to pray. Perhaps their most astonishing legacy is the huge underground cathedral they left behind for posterity.

It may feel like you are in the middle of a Jules Verne adventure as you descend in to the depths of the earth. After a one hundred and fifty meter climb down wooden stairs, the visitor to the salt mine will see some amazing sites. About the most astounding in terms of its sheer size and Audacity is the Chapel of Saint Kinga. This was more than just a long term hobby to relieve The boredom of being underground. This was an act of worship.

Amazingly, even the chandeliers in the cathedral are made of Salt. It was not simply hewn from the ground and then thrown together, the process is rather more painstaking. After extraction, the rock salt was first of all dissolved. It was then Reconstituted with the impurities taken out so that it achieved a glass-like Finish.

The visitors think that the rest of the salt in the mine looks Like salt they would sprinkle on their meals.

However, the rock salt Occurs naturally in different shades of grey (something like you would expect Granite to look like).

Well over one million visitors (mainly from Poland And its eastern European neighbors) visit the mine to see, Among other things, how salt was mined in the past.

For safety reasons, less than one percent of the mine is open to Visitors, but even that is still almost four kilometers in length – more Than enough to weary the average tourist after an hour or two. The mine was closed for two reasons – the low price of salt on the world Market made it too expensive to extract here. Also, the mine was slowly flooding, another reason why visitors are restricted to only certain areas.

The religious carvings are, in reality, what draw many to this Mine – as much for their amazing diversity as for their Christian Aesthetics. One such is Jesus appearing to the apostles after the Crucifixion. He shows the doubter, Saint Thomas , the wounds on his Wrists.

Another remarkable carving, is a take on The Last Supper. The work and patience that must have gone into the creation of these Sculptures is extraordinary. One wonders what the miners would Have thought of their work going on general display. They must have come to be quite used to it, in fact, even during the mine's Busiest period in the nineteenth century The Cream of Europe's Thinkers visited the site – you can still see many of their names in the visitor's books on display.

It comes as little surprise to learn that the mine was placed on the Original list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites back in 1978.

Not all of the work is relief-based. There are many life-sized statues.

Within the confines of the mine there is also much To be learned about the miners from the machinery and tools that they used – Many of which are on display and are centuries old.

A catastrophic flood in 1992 dealt the last blow to commercial salt mining in the area and now the mine functions purely as a tourist attraction.

Not all of the statues have a religious or symbolic imagery attached to them. The miners had a sense of humour! Here can be seen their own take on the legend of Snow White and the Seven Dwarves. The intricately carved dwarves must have seemed to some of the miners a kind of ironic depiction of their own work. The miners even threw in a dragon for good measure!

Certainly, they may have whistled while they worked, but the conditions in the salt mine were far from comfortable and the hours were long the fact that it was subterranean could hardly have added to the excitement of going to work each morning.

To cap it all there is even an underground lake, softly lit by electricity and candles. This is perhaps where the old legends of lakes to the underworld and Catholic imagery of the saints work together best to leave a lasting impression of the mine. How different a few minutes reflection here must have been when compared to the noise and sweat of everyday working life in the mine.

Brethren, with the summer recess period almost at a close, I take this opportunity to submit a report, in no chronological order, with regard to my duties, as your almoner, during said recess...

It is with deep regret that I intimate the sudden passing of Bro. Elias Sudding, (aged 65) Past Master of Lodge Union & Crown No. 307 and Companion of Rockmount Royal Arch Chapter No. 367. Bro. Elias (Know, as Ellis) passed away suddenly on Monday 19th August at the Golden Jubilee Hospital in Clydebank. The funeral Service took place on Monday the 26th August at St Andrews Church Barrhead and thereafter at Neilston Cemetery. The after service took place in the Masonic Hall, Cochrane Street, Barrhead.

I have visited the family home in Barrhead and expressed deepest sympathy on behalf of the Lodge to Bro. Elias's beloved wife, Jean, and other members of the family who were present. I was indeed most sincerely thanked by all.

Bro. Elias Sudding PM was a, loyal, and very active member of his much loved Mother Lodge for many years. He was respected as a good and decent brother within the fraternity of freemasonry and beyond. A man who will be sadly missed by all who knew him.

It is with further regret that I intimate the passing of Bro. Alex Smith Kerr, (aged 90) of Lodge Union & Crown No. 307. Bro. Alex passed away suddenly on Wednesday 21st August at the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Paisley. The funeral Service took place on Thursday the 29th August at Woodside Crematorium, Paisley. (At time of going to print Bro. Alex White, our almoner has expressed his intention to attend this service on behalf of the Lodge Ed.)

On Friday 2nd August 2013, I attended the funeral service of Mr Stuart Andrew Simpson (aged 36) which took place at Daldowie Crematorium, Glasgow. I was accompanied by Bro. Wilson Davidson PM.

Stuart A. Simpson was indeed a much loved son of Bro. Bill Simpson and his wife Tricia. Stuart passed away peacefully at a hospice in the North of Glasgow on the 28th July 2013 with family present.

Condolences on behalf of the Lodge were extended by me to Stuart's wife, Michelle, and, of course to Stuart's parents, Bro. Bill and Tricia, who I had also visited at their home prior to the funeral service, all of whom sincerely thanked me.

Since my last report I have made the following home visits:-

Bro. Robert Nixon P.M.

Bro. Willie Love P.M.

Bro. Donald Cook P.M.

Bro. John Brooks

Bro. William Dempsey

Bro. Davie Provan (at Millview care home)

Bro. John Ross

Bro. Jim Liggat

Bro. Robert Ross

Bro. John Osborne

Bro. Willie Dempsey

Bro. Eric Gray (on discharge from hospital)

Bro. Donald Ferguson

Bro. Bobby Kennedy

Bro. Ian Horn

Bro. John W. Smith

Mrs Liz Kavanagh

Mrs Margaret McLellan

Bro. Harry Paton (on discharge from hospital)

Bro. John Raeburn (on discharge from hospital)

Bro. Stef Lawniczak

Bro. Jim Laird

Mrs Mary Gray

Mrs Isobel Paton (on discharge from hospital)

A number of the aforementioned visits by me were also carried out by me on more than one occasion.

Bro. Jim Liggat celebrated his 93rd birthday on July 28th 2013. A few days before that 'notable day', Bro. Jim, accompanied by six good friends, all members of 307, myself included, journeyed by car to the Brig 'O' Doon Hotel in Ayr where we all had a wonderful dinner and a birthday cake included, with candles lit! Bro. Jim rose to the occasion with a fine measure of humour and wit. A grand time was had by us all and Masonic fellowship abounded, well done Bro. Jim Liggat, a freemason, now, and always.

Brethren, please contact me if my services as your almoner is required.

Bro. Alex White, Lodge Almoner, ☎ 0141-571 6411

Bro. Alex, on behalf of the RWM Bro. Paul Stewart, his office bearers and the Brethren of the Lodge I thank you for your continued work throughout the summer. You are one of a select band who, because of their Masonic commitment (and commitments), do not have the luxury of a summer 'recess'. Ed.

EDUCATION SHOWCASE EVENT

A conference to showcase the on-going Masonic education programme being undertaken by the Provincial Grand Lodge of Renfrewshire East was held on Saturday, 22nd June, in the Redhurst Hotel, Giffnock.

Among the guests of honour who attended the event were the Most Worshipful Grand Master Mason Bro. Charles Iain Robert Wolrige Gordon of Esslemont and Grand Secretary, Bro. David M. Begg, Chair of the G.L. Information and Communication Committee, Bro. Thomas F. Jessop, and Curator of the G.L. Museum and Library, Bro. Robert Cooper.

The Dougie Campbell Memorial Trophy

This once popular bowling competition was due to have taken place at Arthurlie Bowling Club on Sunday 14th July 2013. Sadly it was again cancelled at the last minute and it would be pointless to try and apportion any blame.

In the past, this event, between the Lodge and Arthurlie Bowling Club was always one to look forward to. Sadly, it would appear that while the more senior members have, in some cases, passed the point where, the spirit may have been willing, the flesh is now weak. Over time, interest seems to have wained amongst the younger members of both the bowling club and the Lodge. I do not speak for the Lodge, only myself, but perhaps it is time for our management, in conjunction with Arthurlie B.C., to now consider another format for this trophy or to allow it to pass into history and the trophy cabinet of the holders in perpetuity.

Lodge Randolph

Congratulations to Bro Simon Smith, Past Master of Lodge Glennifer No. 1219, and now the Province of Renfrewshire East's first 'new' RWM of the 2013-2014 term.

Bro. Simon was placed in the Chair of his adopted Lodge, Lodge Randolph No. 1434, on Friday 12th July 2013, his installing Masters were Bro, William H. Gault PM and Bro. Johnny W Gault PM and both are to be congratulated on a fine job.

Bro Paul Revere

Bro Paul Revere, famed for his exploits during the American War of Independence, delivered the following charge to his Brethren in 1795 :

“Let your chief care be the advancement of the society of which you have the honor to be members. Let there be a modest and friendly emulation among you in doing good to each other. Let complacency and benevolence flourish among you. Let your actions be square by the rules of Freemasonry. Let your friendship be cherished, and all the advantages of that title by which we distinguish each other, that we may be Brothers not only in name but in full import, extent and latitude of so

My Freemasonry

My Craft is my life and my inspiration
For it teaches me brotherhood, without demarcation.
There is love, there is hope, there is always life
Without this world`s hate, or division, or strife.
No man can I hate, no religion I scorn,
For my first degree teaches to be pure as when born.
Each man is my neighbour, be he white brown or black,
And each stranger`s a friend when I welcome him back.
Though different we are by our teaching or toil,
The second reminds me there`s no difference at all.
It`s by standing up plumb and acting aye square
That my God, on the level, I`ll meet when up there.
My Lodge also helps me to perfect what I`m given
That my keystone may be found in the canopy of heaven.
I am equal, I`m accepted, I`m trusty and I`m free
What a glorious revelation this craft is to me.
When my full road I`ve travelled and my journey is done
The third degree teaches of the victory I`ve won.
If I`ve loved and I`ve laboured and cared for a friend
My Freemasonry will continue in that world without end.

Thoughts of a Mason`s Wife

How many wives of Masons have ever given much thought To the Wonderful Biblical lessons that Masonry has taught? Have you asked yourself this question, when you sit alone at night, While hubby is away at Lodge, is my reasoning straight and right?

I know the nights are lonely and lon, but this question comes to me "If my husband wasn't a Mason, what kind of man would he be?" I know nothing of their secret work, but this much I understand, that the lessons taught in Masonry have made a better man.

So ask yourself this question, which has always come to me, "If my husband wasn't a Mason, what kind of man would he be?" They call us "Masonic Widows", I've been one for many a year I've spoken my piece on lonely nights, and berated my hubby dear. But then again I regret my words, and with wisdom try to see, "If my husband wasn't a Mason, what kind of man would he be?"

So I try to be a patient wife, as alone I meditate And see his point, as he leaves for the Lodge, with these words, "I won't be late". Some say that men make Masonry, and this I understand but deep in my heart I still maintain "that Masonry makes the man". And as we journey the highway together, to the inner things of life, May their teachings go on forever, Sincerely, a Mason's Wife.

Magic Masons

Masonic Bro. Harry Keller (1849-1922) was the founder of what has been described as the Royal Dynasty of American Magicians. Keller began the tradition of passing the mantle of "Greatest American Magician" to a successor, his Masonic Brother, Howard Thurston.

The lineage of the Keller dynasty has over the years passed from Bro. Thurston to Masonic Bro. Dante (Harry Jansen, 1883-1955), to Lee Grable (1919 - present, especially famous for floating and revolving his wife in mid-air as she plays the piano - a variation of Levitation made famous by Bro. Keller), and to the current successor, Lance Burton.

However, much of what we know of Keller is learned from his friend Bro. Harry Houdini who was a frequent guest at Keller's Los Angeles estate and interviewed the great magician to document the history of their craft.

Long after Keller had retired and just a few years before his death, Houdini cajoled his friend on stage for a mammoth show to benefit the families of the men who died when the troop transport Antilles was sunk by a German U-boat. Houdini arranged for Keller to be carried off in triumph after his final public performance, as six thousand spectators sang Bro. Robert Burns poem "Auld Lang Syne."

An amusing anecdote related to Bro. Keller's Masonic membership was when he was shipwrecked in the Bay of Biscay and his Blue Lodge diploma went to the bottom of the sea. It was later recovered by divers who brought up baggage from the sunken steamer. Bro. Keller later remarked it had been viewed by Grand Master Neptune and returned.

Lodge Captain Speirs No. 791

We hear that Capt. Spiers No. 791 will now be holding their meetings at the premises of Lodge St. Barchan No.156 in Kilbarchan.

The first (historic) meeting takes place on Tuesday 10th September, 2013 and all brethren are welcome.

We wish both Lodges success for the future.

One of the most awkward things that can happen in a pub is when your drink-to-toilet cycle gets synchronised with a complete stranger.

FLASHBACK

Some Snippets from the Mallet of 23 Years Ago

Summer 2005

RWM Thomas Mulholland

It would have given us a great deal of satisfaction and pleasure to be able to say, for once, that we all enjoyed a long hot summer with seemingly endless bright sunny days with hardly a cloud in sight, but unfortunately we'd be slightly economical with the truth. The weather was rather mixed, with most seasons rolled in to one at times.

The summer marked the retiral of Bro Eric Gray as Hallkeeper after almost nine years. We would like to thank Bro Eric and his wife Annie for all their hard work and efforts. (It's worth noting the original statement said the retiral of Bro. Eric! However the sentence remained 9 years Ed.)

At the regular meeting of Lodge Randolph, No.1434 held on Friday 8th July 2005, Bro Jim Miller, Past Master of Lodge Union & Crown, was installed into the chair of Lodge Randolph No. 1434, his adopted lodge. The Installing Masters on that occasion were Bro Jim Kerr PM 307, Bro Wilson Davidson PM 307 and Bro John Miller PM 1167, PM 1434. A fine attendance of 90 thereafter retired to the function suite, and partook of the excellent meal on offer. Thereafter, Mr John McKelvie, a well-known after dinner speaker, and former Police Superintendent entertained the assembled Brethren.

Sadly, we lost two of our Past Masters over the Recess – Bro Ian Wallace PM and Bro George Hannah PM. Both were well known within the town, and will be mourned by many. The Lodge was well represented at each funeral, and commiserations were extended on behalf of the Lodge to both families.

The annual Summer Fayre was held on Saturday 28th May and whilst the weather wasn't very good, with overcast skies and the odd shower, a reasonable number of Brethren, their families and friends took the trouble to attend. The usual stalls and attractions kept everyone occupied, and a good laugh was had by all. Brother Graham Manson is to be congratulated for all his efforts and it was a tremendous achievement that they managed to raise almost £700 for Lodge funds.

Our annual Joint Divine Service with Lodge Thistle & Crown, with the Reverend Sandy MacDonald presiding, was held on Sunday 29th May within Neilston Parish Church. Unfortunately, due to a whole host of reasons, principally a lack of notice, the service was poorly attended, although Bro Tom Mulholland R.W.M. would like to personally thank all those who managed to support him at this important service.

On the sporting front Union & Crown enjoyed mixed fortunes in the various competitions and we hope to be able to publish full details of our efforts very soon. The thanks of the Lodge must go to the Conveners of the various Sports involved who had a thankless task in trying to get everyone involved to play their ties
